

A schematic diagram of a closed double door system. Two door units are shown, each with a handle and a lock mechanism. A large padlock is positioned in the center, locking the two doors together. The diagram illustrates the mechanical connection between the two doors when they are closed.

Wind speed

Stationary brake symbol

[illegible]